

MONEY LYING IN THE CITY STREETS

The Clue to Its Location Is Plain.

MANY HUNT BLACK ARROW

This Is the Last Chance to Pick Up Money on the Sidewalk.

"The second will be placed on a business street, also in the northwest section, running east and west, somewhere between the point where it is crossed by a street whose name is part of a gambling phrase and its obstruction by the center of one of the oldest Government buildings."

There it is. This is a clue to the location of $5, all that remains of the $100 hidden away this week by The Times in the great Black Arrow hunt.

Three other persons have found three of the envelopes containing orders on The Times for the rest of the money. Luck, diligence, perseverance and keenness won for these people, and it is exceedingly surprising that the other prize has remained untraced.

It is hidden away, but not where it is impossible, or even hard, to find it. All that is needed is a little profound studying and the money can be found.

Eighty-Five Dollars Has Been Found.

So far, $85 has been literally picked up on the streets of Washington. Wallace Landon, of 1618 Sixth Street northwest, found an order for $50, the largest prize, yesterday forenoon at 10:30. The envelope marked with the lucky Black Arrow, was concealed underneath a runaway.

J. T. Chinn quite accidentally happened upon an order for $5 behind the schedule card on one of his letter boxes at Seventh and E Streets, at 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon.

William Hly, of 717 Thirteenth Street northwest, sat idling in Franklin Square, when he espied an envelope sticking up from a flower bed. It contained an order for $10.

Can Be Found.

Thus $15 of the $100 is to be found. Someone is bound to find it soon, especially if a careful search is made. Though this is the third day that the money has remained concealed, the eagerness or enthusiasm of the searchers has not diminished.

It does not take a Vidocq or a Sherlock Holmes to find the place indicated in the clues given above. The appearance of the street on the first morning indicated that searchers were quick to find the street. The same searchers have been searching and searching, but no one has yet hit upon the right place.

Demand for Jury Trial.

Demand for a jury trial was made in the Police Court today by Samuel Cohen, a baker, with a shop at 701 Sixth Street southwest. It is alleged that he offered for sale forty loaves of bread which weighed something less than two pounds as prescribed by law. The loaves were to be sold for 10 cents each.

Opening Gude's New Store.

A modern flower shop in every particular with plenty of room for both displays and for the making up of special floral pieces. Gude & Co. have planned this opening to interest every lover of the beautiful in flowers. The American Beauties are superb, the chrysanthemums and other flowers are the finest specimens of their kind. The firm will be glad to have you stop in and see the flower show. 124 F st. nw.

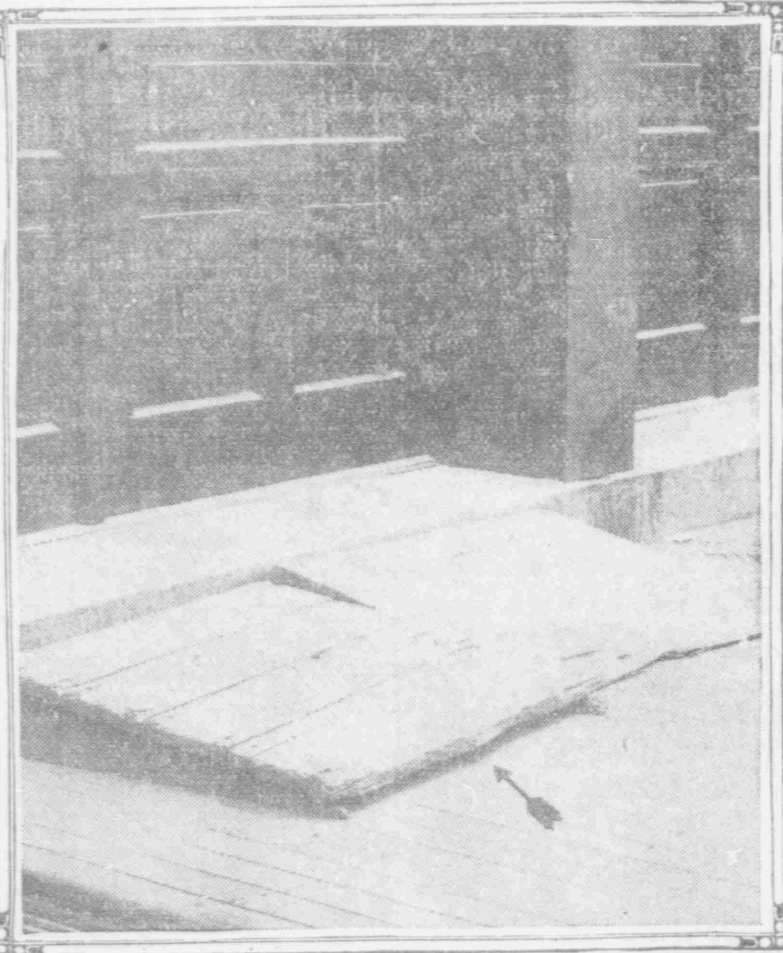

Tri-Weekly Excursions to California.

The convenience and comforts enjoyed via the Southern Pacific Company's excursions to the Pacific Coast have undoubtedly had a great deal to do with the dissemination of the beauties and wonders of California. Via the excursion sleeper coaches of this company comfort throughout the entire transcontinental trip is a certainty, and the item of expense is cut to the last possible point, through berths being especially low in price. Not all of the beauty of these trips lies at the western terminus either, for the route lies over the Southern Railway to New Orleans, where some of the country's greatest beauties are to be found. A. J. Boston, the general agent, may be seen at 51 Pennsylvania avenue, where detailed information regarding these tri-weekly trips may be had.

Pimlico Races Via Pennsylvania R. R.

For the race meet at Pimlico November 8 to 12, train leaving Washington at 12:30 noon, and returning from Baltimore 6:10 a. m., will stop at Pennsylvania Avenue, Baltimore. Convenient to travel for the race track.

LARGE SALE OF SEATS TO COMING CONCERT

The second of the three days' sale of seats to guarantors of the Coleridge-Taylor Choral Society opened this morning at Droop's music house, in Pennsylvania Avenue, and it was long after noon before the line, which had formed at 10 o'clock last night showed any indication of being broken.

Despite the interest which attached to the election returns last night persons who were anxious to obtain seats to the two concerts of the society which will be given at Convention Hall on November 16 and 17, had taken their places in line and there they stood all night.

The first sale was opened last Saturday and on Friday night more than a hundred people formed in the line and waited for the office to open on Saturday. The public sale of seats will open on next Saturday at 7 o'clock in the morning.

Stabbed by a Negro.

After being stabbed in the side by an unknown negro, Edward W. Beckwith, of 125 Ninth Street northwest, walked to the Emergency Hospital shortly after 12:30 o'clock last night and asked for treatment. The physicians made an examination and ascertained that the young man's injury was a deep incised wound. To the police Beckwith said he had some trouble with the negro on Pennsylvania Avenue and was followed to Twelfth Street, where the stabbing occurred.

New Southwest Branch Office.

CERES

Pancake Roller Patent

The Cheapness of Ceres Flour.

In spite of the advance in the price of wheat, it is a noteworthy fact that "Ceres" flour is 25 cents to 31 cents cheaper than any other first-class spring wheat flour. This is due to the enterprise of the millers and to their determination to keep the price of "Ceres" flour just as low as they possibly can. Although the flour market has advanced considerably during the past six or eight weeks, you can buy a barrel of "Ceres" flour from your grocer for $7.50, or $8.05 for one-quarter barrel of forty-nine pounds. That price still means cheap bread for all those housekeepers who bake bread at home.

There are many other good flours on the market, some for a little less money, but none can compare with "Ceres" flour in quality and purity or in the quantity and quality of bread produced.
